“Last Chance” Flu Clinic Offered

There is still time to get a flu shot. The Central Connecticut Health District will hold a final flu shot clinic on Tuesday, November 25, 2008 from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. The clinic will be in the Manager’s Conference Room, 1st floor, at the Wethersfield Town Hall, 505 Silas Deane Hwy. in Wethersfield.

Pneumonia shots also will be available. Participants are asked to wear short sleeves or loose-sleeved clothes.

Flu shots are available at no charge for anyone with Medicare Part B or any of the following Medicare managed care plans: Aetna (PFFS only), Anthem, Connecticare, Health Net, and WellCare. Residents must present the insurance card they use for doctor appointments at the clinic. Note: only Medicare plans are accepted; those who have non-Medicare health insurance plans will have to pay for the shot. The cash fee for a flu shot is $20.00, the pneumonia shot cost is $30.00.

The clinic is open to anyone age 9 and older, regardless of town of residence. Appointments are recommended, but walk-ins are welcome. Call 721-2818 for an appointment. A recorded message about the clinic is also available by calling 721-2822 and choosing option 1, or by checking the Central Connecticut Health District’s web site at www.ccthd.org.
